The Honorable J. William Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Casey:

In May of 1983, the Task Force on International Private Enterprise was established and asked by the President to consider how U.S. resources, particularly foreign assistance programs, could be used to assist developing countries increase trade, investment, and private enterprise. On behalf of the Task Force, we are pleased to provide you with a copy of our final report.

We believe our report and the accompanying Private Enterprise Guidebook can make a constructive contribution to the way the U.S. Government addresses economic development issues. We hope you will find both the report and the guidebook informative and useful.

Sincerely,

Dwayne O. Andreas
Chairman

Parker G. Montgomery
Vice Chairman
